Guidelines for the Lascelles Bursary Award

1. Purpose

To assist talented local music students to purchase suitable instruments, printed music or to fund music tuition, including voice.

2. Who Qualifies?

Students 18 years old or younger studying an instrument/voice with Bucks Music Service, or privately, or attending the Amersham Music Centre, or an equivalent activity (such as member of a band or orchestra) in South Buckinghamshire.

Alternatively, you may be new to music instrument or voice tuition and want to give it a try.

Only ONE Bursary per family is awarded each year.

3. References

Applications must be supported by your music teacher, if you have one already. Applications will be assessed on the applicant's talent, potential and circumstances.

The maximum Bursary award is £500, but because of demand typical awards are often lower.
